

In a world of attorneys siphoning monies from clients, Joseph Waldbaum stands out as a man who is truly fighting for you.

When I found myself facing a second OUI I scoured websites in search of help. I filled out his initial questionnaire and hit send. In fifteen minutes my phone was ringing and he was personally responding (in the middle of his dinner no less). He told me of the consequences of such a charge and began to instruct me on the next course of action. Throughout the entire process he was quick to respond to all questions. As I am not a man of great financial means he was more than willing to be flexible with payments.

After eight months of depending on family and friends to assist me with travel, I now have my license back and no second offense on my record. I never knew the words "not guilty" and "immediate license reinstatement" would bring me to tears. He knows the law through and through and I would highly suggest you listen to him.

Here is my phone number 617-792-1012, I am more than willing to receive calls from prospective clients to assist you and your firm.

With the utmost sincerity,

Dana
